

ADI Registry Systems Inc, Has the Solution for Family and Friends wanting to offer Condolences During the Coronavirus Pandemic

As the Coronavirus continues to affect our daily lives, it's not always easy to know what to do to keep ourselves and our loved ones safe. In most areas of the U.S., public gatherings have been banned or discouraged. We're practicing social distancing, staying home as much as possible. Meanwhile, life goes on — and life includes all the everyday deaths that happen from all the regular everyday causes. But now, everyday deaths raise the question: What do current health precautions, during the Coronavirus pandemic, such as limiting or restricting large public gatherings to 10, mean for holding a funeral visitation or service?

The last thing you want to do is not acknowledge someone who was there to support you and your family in such a difficult time. ADI Registry Systems, has the solution that families and funeral professionals are currently employing to make it safer for families/friends to express condolences. For those visitors and friends who will not be signing the registry book or attending funeral homes during this COVID-19 situation and would still like to offer condolences.

ADI is offering other methods of registry during this time, In lieu of the Legacy page and other Guest Registry components that do not offer printed envelopes or an acknowledgment package. ADI Registry Systems will provide a Registry Link. ADI will then collect data and create a printed acknowledgment package that will include the following: printed acknowledgment cards, addressed envelopes, printed guest book delivered and a CSV file emailed to family. Our ADI Registry Link i.e. bit.ly/mnapoli to place in your obituary section of your website or any other Social Media Face Book or Text. This will allow any individual unable to attend a service to register and pay their condolences. The registry link allows an individual to safely register from home on any desktop, Pc, tablet or cell phone.

This option will also enable those unable to attend to make a safe and secure monetary donation electronically thru a PayPal account.

Below is a sample text and link that can be used in your obituary section on your website.
